AN ACT
PROVIDING FOR A NEW PASSPORT LAW, REPEALING FOR THE PURPOSE
REPUBLIC ACT NO. 8239, OTHERWISE KNOWN AS THE “PHILIPPINE PASSPORT
ACT OF 1996”

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in Congress assembled:

1 SECTION 1. Short Title. – This Act shall be known as the “New Philippine Passport Act.”
2

3 SEC. 2. Statement of Policy. – The people’s constitutional right to travel is inviolable.
4 Accordingly, the government has the duty to issue passports or any travel document to any citizen of 5 the Philippines or individual who complies with the requirements of this Act, using, as much as 6 practicable, the latest tamper-proof, personalization, and data management technology. The right to 7 travel may be impaired only when national security, public safety, or public health so requires. To 8 enhance and protect the unimpaired exercise of this right, only minimum requirements for the 9 application and issuance of passports and other travel documents shall be prescribed. The government
10 shall ensure expeditious action on such applications and the issuance of passports and travel
11 documents.

12
13 SEC. 3. Definition of Terms. – As used in this Act:

14 (a) Ambassadors refer to those who have been appointed as Chiefs of Mission and are 15 currently serving as Ambassadors Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary;

16 (b) Biographic data refers to an individual’s full name, birthdate, birth place, and sex as 17 recorded in the certificate of live birth or report of birth;

18 (c) Biometric data refers to front facing photograph, fingerprint, iris scan and such other
19 identifiable features of an individual;

20 (d) Convention on International Civil Aviation or Chicago Convention refers to the 21 Convention which sets out certain principles and arrangements for the development of international 22 civil aviation and establishment of international air transport services, signed in Chicago in 1944 and 23 which entered into force in 1968;

24 (e) Consular Offices (CO) refer to field offices of the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA)
25 Office of Consular Affairs located in the Philippines where passport and consular services are provided;

- 1 (f) Consular Official refers to a DFA official assigned to the Office of Consular Affairs,
2 DFA Consular Offices in the Philippines and Foreign Service Posts, who is responsible for providing 3 passport and other consular services.
- 4 (g) Fugitives from justice refer to those who flee after conviction to avoid punishment and 5 those who, after being charged, flee to avoid prosecution;
- 6 (h) Foreign Service Posts (FSPs) refer to embassies, missions, consulates general, and other
7 foreign service establishments maintained by the DFA;
- 8 (i) ICAO refers to the International Civil Aviation Organization, a specialized agency of 9 the United Nations (UN), established by UN Member States in 1944 to manage the administration and 10 governance of the Convention on International Civil Aviation or the Chicago Convention;
- 11 (j) ICAO Document 9303 refers to the latest edition of the compendium of ICAO technical 12 requirements, standards and recommended practices for the production of machine readable travel
13 documents;
- 14 (k) Issuing authority refers to the DFA Office of Consular Affairs, DFA Consular Offices in 15 the Philippines, or the Philippine Foreign Service Posts overseas which issue passports and provide 16 other consular services;
- 17 (l) Large scale refers to the commission of any of the offenses under this Act against three 18 (3) or more persons individually or as a group;
- 19 (m) Machine Readable Travel Document refers to an official document, conforming with the 20 specifications contained in ICAO Document 9303, issued by a State or organization, which is used by 21 the holder for international travel and which contains mandatory visual data and a separate mandatory
22 data summary in a format which is capable of being read by a machine;
- 23 (n) Passport refers to the ICAO-compliant machine readable travel document issued by the 24 Philippine Government which contains a request to other governments to permit its bearer to pass safely
25 and freely, and to provide all lawful aid and protection, if needed;
- 26 (o) Recognized alien residents refer to aliens who are permanent residents of the 27 Philippines, or who are Stateless persons or refugees, as recognized by the Philippine Government;
- 28 (p) Syndicate refers to a group of three (3) or more persons conspiring with one another; 29 and
- 30 (q) Travel Document refers to a form of identification, compliant with current ICAO standards,
31 that the Philippine government issues to its citizens or recognized residents so they can cross
32 international borders in lieu of a regular passport;

1 SEC. 4. Authority to Issue, Deny, or Revoke. – Upon the application of any qualified
2 Filipino citizen, the Secretary of Foreign Affairs, hereinafter referred to as Secretary, or any duly
3 authorized consular officer may issue passports in accordance with this Act.
4

5 Philippine consular officials in a foreign country shall be authorized by the Secretary to issue,
6 verify, deny, or revoke a passport in the area of jurisdiction of the Foreign Service Post in accordance
7 with the provisions of this Act.
8

9 In the interest of national security, public safety, and public health, the Secretary or any of the 10 authorized consular officials may, after due hearing and in their proper discretion, deny issuance of a
11 passport or revoke a passport: Provided, however, That such act shall not mean a loss of or a doubt on 12 the person’s citizenship: Provided, further, That the issuance of a passport may not be denied if the 13 safety and interest of the Filipino citizen are at stake: Provided, finally, That denial or revocation of a
14 passport shall not prevent the issuance of an Emergency Travel Document.
15

16 SEC. 5. Requirements for the Issuance of a Passport. – The Secretary, or a duly 17 authorized consular official, shall issue a passport to an applicant who is a Filipino citizen and who has 18 complied with the following requirements:
19

20 (a) A duly accomplished application form;

21 (b) Proof of citizenship as prescribed by relevant laws regarding the acquisition of Philippine 22 citizenship which include:

23 (1) Birth Certificate or Report of Birth, whichever is applicable,
24 for natural born citizens authenticated by the Philippine
25 Statistics Authority (PSA);

26 (2) Naturalization Certificate for Naturalized citizens;

27 (3) Filipino Identification Certificate by Election for those who were born before January 28 17, 1973, of Filipino mothers, and who elected Philippine citizenship upon reaching the 29 age of majority; or

30 (4) Documents issued upon Reacquisition or Retention of Philippine citizenship under 31 Republic Act No. 9225 otherwise known as “Citizenship Retention and Reacquisition Act 32 of 2003”;

 (c) Valid and sufficient proof of identity;

1 (d) Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) authenticated Marriage Certificate or Report of
2 Marriage, whichever is applicable, for a married woman who wishes to use her husband's surname;

3 (e) Duly annotated PSA authenticated Marriage Certificate or Report of Marriage,
4 whichever is applicable, of a woman who wishes to revert to the use of her maiden name by virtue of
5 an annulment, declaration of nullity of marriage, legal separation, or a judicially-recognized divorce;
6 or Death Certificate or Report of Death of the husband.

7 (f) For a minor applicant, the application may be filed by either parent: Provided, That if a
8 person other than the parents of the minor files the application, a Special Power of Attorney (SPA)
9 duly executed by a person exercising parental authority must be presented for this purpose;

10 (g) Written consent of the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), if the 11 applicant is a prospective adoptive child under Republic Act No. 8552, otherwise known as the 12 "Domestic Adoption Act of 1998". If the applicant is a prospective adoptive child of a non-Filipino
13 citizen, or a relative within the fourth civil degree of consanguinity or affinity under Republic Act No.
14 8043, otherwise known as the "Inter-Country Adoption Act of 1995", the following shall be presented:

- 15 1) Authenticated birth certificate from the PSA or a foundling certificate from the 16 DSWD;
- 17 2) Placement Authority issued by the Inter-Country Adoption Board (ICAB); and
- 18 3) Certification issued by the DSWD;

19 (h) For applicants who are sixty-five (65) years old and above, who are renewing their
20 passports, the DFA shall implement a system wherein the applicants may submit their application
21 without the need to physically appear in the Office of Consular Affairs or any Consular Office,
22 through the use of available technology, as far as practicable;

23 (i) In case of discrepancy, the applicant's name or other details in the birth certificate or report
24 of birth shall prevail over that appearing in any other public or private document: Provided, however,
25 That by operation of law or through court order, the applicant is permitted to use a name other than what
26 is officially recorded in the PSA or the Local Civil Registry Office (LCRO);

27 (j) A travel authority, issued by the head of the department, agency, or office or a duly authorized
28 representative, if the applicant is a government official or employee seeking to apply for a diplomatic 29 or official passport. The DFA is mandated to ensure the integrity of the passport at all times. As such,
30 the Secretary or duly authorized consular official may require the applicant to provide additional 31 documents until the latter adequately establishes citizenship and identity.

1 SEC. 6. Application. – A person applying for a passport for the first time shall be required
2 to appear in person for biometric and biographic data capturing.

3 A person exercising parental authority shall assist an applicant who is a minor.

4 An applicant who is unable to read or write, a person with disability, or a senior citizen may be
5 assisted by a relative within the fourth civil degree of consanguinity or affinity, or by the travelling
6 companion of the applicant. The DFA may require other or additional documents as may be specified in 7 the rules and regulations promulgated for the implementation of this Act.

8
9 The personal appearance of a passport applicant and submission of other additional documents
10 required by the DFA as specified in the rules and regulations promulgated for the implementation of this
11 Act shall be required: Provided, That senior citizens may renew their passports without need of personal 12 appearance.

13
14 SEC. 7. Types of Passports. – The Secretary or the authorized consular officer may issue
15 the following types of passports:

16 (a) Diplomatic Passports are issued to persons with diplomatic status or 17 who are on diplomatic mission such as:

18 (1) The President and former Presidents of the Philippines;

19 (2) The Vice-President and former Vice-Presidents of the Philippines;

20 (3) The President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and former 21 Presidents of the Senate and Speakers of the House of Representatives;

22 (4) The Chief Justice and Associate Justices of the Supreme Court and the Presiding Justice
23 of the Court of Appeals, and the Sandiganbayan;

24 (5) The Secretary, Undersecretaries, and Assistant Secretaries of the DFA;

25 (6) The Members of Congress, the Secretary of the Senate, and the Secretary General of the 26 House of Representatives;

27 (7) The Ambassadors Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of the 28 Philippines, Chiefs of Mission, and Foreign Service Officers of all ranks in the career
29 diplomatic service, including designated attachés from the DFA and agencies of the 30 government;

31 (8) The Secretaries of all the departments of the Executive branch;

32 (9) The Governor of the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas;

1 (10) The Official delegates to international or regional conferences accorded full powers
2 by the President; and

3 (11) The spouses and unmarried minor children of the abovementioned officials when 4 accompanying or following to join them in an official mission abroad.

5 The President of the Philippines or the Secretary may grant diplomatic passports to officials and
6 persons other than those enumerated herein who are on official mission abroad or are granted full powers
7 by the President;

8 (b) Official passports are issued to all government officials and employees on official trip
9 abroad but who are not on a diplomatic mission or have not been accorded diplomatic status, such as:

10 (1) The Undersecretaries, Assistant Secretaries of the Cabinet other than the DFA, the 11 Associate Justices of the Court of Appeals and the Sandiganbayan other members of the 12 Judiciary, and all other government officials and employees travelling on official business
13 and official time;

14 (2) Staff officers and employees of the DFA assigned to diplomatic and consular posts, and 15 officers and representatives of other government departments and agencies assigned abroad;

16 (3) Persons in the domestic service and household members of officials assigned to 17 diplomatic or consular posts not exceeding two (2): Provided, That an increase in domestic 18 service and household members of such officials shall be approved by the Secretary; and

19 (4) Spouse and minor children of the staff officers and employees of the DFA assigned to 20 diplomatic or consular posts and offices, and representatives of other government agencies
21 assigned abroad, when accompanying or following to join them.

22 (c) Regular passports are issued to Filipino citizens who are not eligible or entitled to
23 diplomatic or official passports, including government officials or employees going abroad for pleasure
24 or other personal reasons. Government officials and employees and members of their families may,
25 during their incumbency in office, hold two (2) passports simultaneously:

26 (1) a regular passport for private travel; and

27 (2) a diplomatic or official passport when travelling abroad on diplomatic or official
28 business. The spouse and minor children of persons entitled to diplomatic or official
29 passports shall be issued regular passports if they are not accompanying or following to join 30 them.

31 (d) Emergency Passports, which shall be valid for one (1) year from date of issuance, are 32 issued to Filipino citizens who have been previously issued regular passports but for one reason or 33 another, cannot apply for or cannot be issued a regular passport.

1 SEC. 8. Grounds for Denial of Issuance of Passport or Revocation of Passport. – A
2 passport application may be denied, or revoked, on the following grounds:

3 (a) On orders of the court, to hold the departure of an applicant because of a pending criminal 4 case;

5 (b) On orders of the court, when the holder has been convicted of a criminal
6 offense: Provided, That a passport may be issued after service of sentence;

7 (c) On orders of the court, when the holder is a fugitive from justice;

8 (d) When a passport was acquired fraudulently, tampered with, or issued erroneously;

9 (e) When a passport is returned to the DFA by other government agencies or entities:
10 Provided, That revocation of the passport will not prevent the holder from being issued a new passport;

11 (f) On written notarized request by the person exercising parental authority over a minor
12 applicant or passport holder: Provided, That, if the requesting party is not a Filipino, the consent of the 13 Filipino parent is required;

14 (g) When the applicant has been found to have violated any of the provisions of this Act;

15 (h) Such other disqualification under existing laws.

16 SEC. 9. Passport Databases. – The DFA shall create the following databases:

17 (a) Passport database which shall contain all current and, if available, previous passport and 18 travel document records of Philippine citizens, including recognized alien residents.

19 (b) Watch list database which shall contain the names of persons whose passport applications
20 have been denied or whose passports were revoked under Sec. 4, as well as those persons found to have 21 committed, or attempted to commit, offenses under Sec. 19 of this Act. No passport shall be issued to 22 the persons found in the database until they are able to meet the documentary or legal requirements for 23 the removal of their names from the database.

24 The Secretary or any of the duly-authorized consular officials may recommend the inclusion of 25 persons in the database other than those previously cited for other reasons that may provide a basis for 26 the DFA to deny issuance of a passport to these persons.

27 Nothing in the above provisions shall prevent the issuance of other types of travel documents to 28 persons included in the watch list, at the discretion of the Secretary or duly-authorized consular officials.

29 (c) Stolen, lost, and revoked database which shall contain the information on passports and 30 travel documents of persons who declared that their passports or travel documents have been lost or 31 stolen.

1 The passport or travel document that has been revoked by the DFA under Sec. 4 of this Act shall
2 also be included in this database.

3
4 SEC. 10. *Appeal. – Any person whose passport application was denied or revoked shall have the 5 right to appeal to the Secretary, whose decision may be reviewed by the appropriate court.

6
7 SEC. 11. *Validity. – As provided for under Republic Act No. 10928, extending the validity of 8 Philippine passports, regular passports issued under this Act shall be valid for a period of ten (10) years:
9 Provided, however, That for individuals under eighteen (18) years of age, only a passport with five (5)-year
10 validity shall be issued: Provided, further, That the issuing authority may limit the period of validity to less
11 than ten (10) years, whenever in the national economic interest or political stability of the country
12 such restriction is necessary: Provided, finally, That a new passport may be issued to replace one which 13 validity has expired, the old passport being returned to the holder after cancellation.

14
15 SEC. 12. *Ownership of Passports. – A Philippine passport remains at all times the property
16 of the government, the holder being a mere possessor thereof for the duration of the passport’s validity,
17 and the same may not be surrendered to any entity or person other than the government or its duly 18 authorized representative.

19
20 SEC. 13. *Names and Titles. – Passports shall contain the full name of the applicant, but 21 shall not include any title, profession or job description.

22
23 SEC. 14. *Other Travel Documents. – The following travel documents may be issued in 24 lieu of a passport, under the circumstances listed hereunder:

25 (a) Emergency Travel Document, which shall be valid for one (1) year from date of 26 issuance, for:

27 (1) A Filipino citizen with urgent travel requirements who, for one reason or 28 another, has lost one’s passport or whose passport has expired or is expiring and cannot 29 be issued a regular passport;

30 (2) A Filipino citizen with emergency travel requirements, who has not been 31 issued a regular passport and who, for one reason or another, cannot be issued a 32 regular passport;

1 (b) Travel Document Certificate, which shall be valid for thirty (30) days from date of
2 issuance, for:

3 (1) A Filipino citizen being repatriated to the Philippines;

4 (2) The alien spouse of a Filipino and their dependents who have not yet been
5 naturalized as a Filipino and who are travelling to the Philippines or is a permanent 6 resident of the Philippines returning from traveling abroad; and

7 (3) Aliens permanently residing in the Philippines who are not able to obtain a
8 passport or other travel documents from their countries of origin.

9 (c) Convention Travel Document, which shall be valid for five (5) years from date of 10 issuance, shall be issued for a Stateless person who is likewise a permanent resident or a refugee 11 granted such status or asylum in the Philippines.

12
13 SEC. 15. Loss or Destruction of a Passport. – The loss or destruction of a passport shall 14 be immediately reported to the DFA or a Foreign Service Post. The holder of such passport shall submit 15 an affidavit stating in detail the circumstances of such loss or destruction. As used in this Act, a lost 16 passport is one the whereabouts of which are unknown to the applicant despite diligent search, or if
17 known, may not be retrieved, recovered and produced by the applicant for reasons beyond the applicant’s 18 control.

19
20 Should the DFA find that the applicant made false claims or deliberately withheld information
21 about the loss of the passport or passports, the applicant shall be held liable under Section 19(b) of this 22 Act.

23
24 SEC. 16. Fees. – Reasonable fees, as may be determined by the Secretary, shall be 25 collected for the processing and issuance of a passport or a travel document.

26
27 Senior citizens and persons with disability shall be entitled to at least a fifty percent (50%)
28 discount on the processing, issuance, or replacement of a passport.

29
30 SEC. 17. Passport Revolving Fund. – The DFA may charge a service fee of not more
31 than fifty percent (50%) of the current fees, as determined in Section 16 of this Act for services rendered
32 to applicants relating to the processing or issuance of passports requiring special consideration, waiver
33 or issuance beyond regular office hours.

The service fees received by the DFA under this section shall constitute a revolving fund to be called the "Passport Revolving Fund" which may be utilized by the DFA primarily for the improvement of its passporting and consular services and other DFA services. In no case shall said fund be used for the payment of travel and transportation allowances.

The use and disbursement of the Passport Revolving Fund shall be subject to accounting and auditing rules and regulations of the Commission on Audit. The Secretary shall submit a report on the collection and use of the Passport Revolving Fund to the Senate and the House of Representatives semi-annually.

SEC. 18. Waiver. – The Secretary is solely authorized to waive any requirement set forth in Section 5 of this Act, as well as the fees for the processing and issuance of passports and travel documents prescribed under Section 16 of this Act.

SEC. 19. Offenses and Penalties. – A passport, being a proclamation of the citizenship of a Filipino, is superior to all other official documents and as such, shall be accorded the highest respect by its holder. Any act prejudicial to its integrity is a grave crime against the security of the State and shall be penalized accordingly:
